NOTES – DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTERESTS

- “body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;

- “director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society;

- “land” excludes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income;

- “member” includes a co-opted member;

- “relevant period” means the period of 12 months ending with the day on which you give a notification for the purposes of section 30(1) (notification of DPIs upon becoming a member or co-opted member) or section 31(7) (notification of DPIs not currently on the register that you become aware of), as the case may be, of the Localism Act 2011;

- “relevant person” means:
  - you
  - your spouse or civil partner
  - a person with whom you are living as husband and wife; or
  - a person with whom you are living as if you were civil partners;

- “securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited within a building society.
(2) Any gifts or hospitality with an estimated value of at least £25 which you have received in connection with your official duties as a member. Please give details of the gift/hospitality and its source:
